MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: Eloise R. Page
Acting Director, Intelligence Community Staff
SUBJECT: DCI Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program

1. We have encountered a situation in our day-to-day administration of the DCI Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program requiring a separate action on your part. The situation arose as follows:

- o [] was on rotational assignment to NSA from his parent agency--the US Army--at the time he applied to the subject program.
- o [] submitted the same proposal through both NSA and Army channels.
- o PPS acted on the NSA submission believing that [] would be responsible to that organization for the duration of the program. Accordingly, a congratulatory letter was sent to LTG Faurer (Attachment A) on [] selection.
- o PPS only recently learned that [] rotational assignment would end before he was to begin his work on the subject program.

2. We have prepared for your signature a letter (Attachment B) to BG Soyster informing him of [] selection.

for Intelligence
Department of the Army

Dear Ed:

I am pleased to report that [redacted] who is currently completing a two-year rotational assignment at the National Security Agency, has been selected to participate in the 1983 Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program. Mr. William Casey, Director of Central Intelligence, reported this earlier to LTG Lincoln Faurer, but since we learned that [redacted] will be returning to your command before he starts his program, I am now notifying you of his selection.

[redacted] program consists of a study which will investigate changes in intelligence analysis involved in monitoring strategic arms control agreements into the 1990s. The two-year program will involve domestic and foreign travel at an estimated cost of [redacted], borne by the Exceptional Intelligence Analyst Program.

Although [redacted] has made arrangements with the National Intelligence Council to conduct his program from their office, his salary and administrative support remain the responsibility of his parent agency. The Chief of Intelligence Community Staff's Budget and Finance Office has been in contact with your staff to make the necessary fiscal arrangements for [redacted]

Thank you for supporting this important program.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
Acting Director
